Database Fields

Wingo's Faunal

Context - the number of the unit and layer from which the bones were excavated

Species - the scientific name of the identified animal

Count - estimate of the number of distinct bones

Element - the name of a particular bone in the skeleton

Weight - all bones were weighed in grams

Wingo's Botanical

Context - the number of the unit and layer from which the bones were excavated

Group - a classification as to the type of food

Species - the scientific name of the identified plant

Count - the number of seeds found